At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. If you have a copy we'd really like to see it - alfie@hmsconway.org

At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. Most believed to be at Beaumaris.	1
Motor Boat No 1	Commissioned from Messrs Rutherford & Co, Neptune Works, Birkenhead in 1926.	The Governors decided that No 1 should be gifted to a 'national' maritime museum where she could be displayed. Several were invited to take her including Liverpool, Greenwich and "Exmouth" but all declined. The April 1974 Club Newsletter (a typed letter) reported that Mr Lord had therefore tried to find a buyer on the open market but that there were "no takers" at a commercial price. He therefore decided to sell her for the best price he could get and she then sold. The buyer and sale price were not recorded. The money was gifted to the Club Committee so they could purchase a large watercolour painting of Winchester (Conway II). The painting was then loaned to Conway. It is understood that TS Indefatigable was No 1's new owner but that has not been confirmed to date.	1

For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. ITEM	NOTES	CURRENT OWNERSHIP / LOCATION	COUNT
Ship Model 1: Of Conway - The Baden Powell Model	Model of the Ship made by Warrington Baden Powell. Used to be displayed on the New Block Quarterdeck but by 1974 was kept in the Headmaster's House.	It is owned by the National Maritime Museum, Greenwich but is on long term loan to The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Ship Model 2: Of Nile - The Douglas Model 1991	-	Owned by OC Andrew Douglas	1
Ship Model 3: Of Nile - The Friends Model	A large scratch built model.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Ship Model 4: Of Nile - The Gee Model 1956	This large and very detailed model was made and presented to the ship by Mr J Gee in 1956. It shows the ship in her Nile days as a pure sailing ship. The glass case was donated by The Conway Club.	It is now part of a Conway display which is the centrepiece of the Museum of the RN, Portsmouth. See page 167.	1
Ship Model 5: Of Nile - The King's Model 1932	On July 22 1932 HM the King was presented with a model of the Conway by John Masefield. It was made onboard by the carpenter Mr John Bullis Williams assisted by cadets. It was paid for by the Conway Club. The hull was cut from the African Oak of a starboard side lower deck fairlead. It was to a scale of one-eighth of an inch to the foot. It took two years to complete. It has 156 dead eyes and 91 blocks made from old school rulers. The metal is silver plated Ship's copper. There are 120 yards of rigging (wire and silk trout line), 622 bolts (domestic pins), 6 feet nine inches of chain on boat davits, 1798 clove hitches in the rigging. There are 16 coats of paint and enamel. It shows the ship in her converted state as Conway in 1931-3 and there is no figurehead as the original was lost in 1918 and not replaced until 1938. This model is completely different to the Gee Model but is very similar to the Williams Model.	HM The King included it in his display of ships' models at Windsor Castle but in 1933 he donated it to the South Kensington Museum, now the Science Museum, London. It is part of their ship's models collection which is now in permanent storage but can be viewed online.	1
Ship Model 6: Of Nile - The Powers Model 1933	In October 1933 many cadets exhibited models at the Ship Model exhibition in the Bluecoats School, Liverpool. Instructor Powers had made a very fine model of the ship, "...a very beautiful representation..."	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1
Ship Model 7: Of Nile - The Williams Model 1932	This model was also made by the ship's carpenter Mr John Bullis Williams, at the request of Chief Officer Commander George Witheridge Couch sometime after 1932. It is approx. 26" long x 16" high. It was by request very similar to the King's Model although it has a seagull on the mainsail yard whereas the King's did not!	In private ownership, known to author.	1
Ship Model 8: Of Nile - The Hewitt Model	With interior lights.	Gifted by Captain Hewitt to The Friends in December 1991. Displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1

Ship Model 11: Of Winchester	A large scratch built model.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Ship Model 12: Of Nile - The Vietnamese Model	Added for completeness, this is a modern commercially available model manufactured in Vietnam by Gian Hnien Co Ltd. A good sized model 31.49"L x 5.9"W x 30.7"H.	Copies are held by The Conway Centre, Menai Heritage Centre, NT at PN and numerous OCs.	1
Ship Model: The Front Half Of Clan MacLaggart, A Heavy Lift Ship	Donated by Clan Line in February 1953. A fully working and very accurate model of the front half of their latest heavy lift ships. Placed in the Seamanship Room at the Dock, later in the New Block Art Room.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1
Ship Model: SS Atlantis	Origins not known. In a large glass case, 6'8" x 1'5" x 2'6". In the New Block it was displayed in the corridor to the laboratories.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1
Ship Model: SS Northumberland	Donated in January 1951 by Messrs James Dowie of Liverpool, agents of the New Zealand Shipping Company. In a large glass case, 7' x 9" x 1'6". It was placed at the head of the staircase in the Nelson Block. But later moved to the centre of the ground floor corridor below the Dormitory Block.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1
Ship Model: SS Otaio	Origins and size not known. It was displayed in the Seamanship Room at the Dock.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1
Model Buoys	A set of model buoys in a polished wooden box with numerous compartments, each holding a 2" model painted buoy. Donated to Conway by Capt. W Douthwaite (21-23), Deputy Principal Examiner of Masters & Mates. Used for Rule of the Road tests	Passed to the BSF in 1974. Now in the Board Room in the Conway Centre.	1
Model Ship's Winch Demonstration Model	Donated to Conway in September 1956 by Messrs Clarke Chapman. Kept in the New Block Art Room.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1

At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. Aldis Lamp	Brass and copper with bulb and length of insulated cable. Used to send messages from the ship to shore while in the ship. After loss of the ship was used ashore for signalling practice.	Donated to The Friends by the ship's engineer. On long term loan to the Conway Centre and displayed there.	1
Aldis Lamp Waterproof Cover	This was mounted on the side of the ship to house the above Aldis Lamp which was protected from the weather by a red hinged plate. The insulated cable ran through one of the pipes.	Donated to The Friends by the ship's engineer. On long term loan to the Conway Centre and displayed there.	1
Anchor 1 (original from the ship)	Recovered from the banks of the Menai Strait by cadets under direction of Brookie in 1968.	Presented by the Club to the Merseyside Maritime Museum, Liverpool. Now stands outside the museum.	1
Anchor 2 (original from the ship)	Recovered from the banks of the Menai Strait by the Seiontt Trust in 1987. They owned the Caernarfon Maritime Museum where it was installed in 1988.	When Caernarfon Maritime Museum closed all its assets transferred to Gwynedd Council. They moved the anchor to the new promenade at Caernarfon. Outside the Maritime Museum, Caernarvon.	1
Anchor 3 (from Rock Ferry mooring)	This is not a Nile anchor from the Ship but one from her Rock Ferry mooring.	Embedded in the Gwynedd foreshore of the Menai Strait adjacent to Vaynol Dock. Clearly visible at low water although the upper strake has been removed.	1
Anchor 4 (from Rock Ferry mooring)	See Anchor 3.	See above, along the Strait towards PD from Vaynol Dock.	1
Anchor Light	Donated by John Duggan (56-58). 'Distressed' Original 13" copper and brass oil anchor light rescued from the wreck.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Bell	Recast in 1907 and now bears the name Conway not Nile. Attached ornamental bell rope made from lanyards donated by B C Monk (66-67).	Presented by the Club to the Museum of the RN, Portsmouth.	1
Billiard Table (full size)	Donated by Captain Charles Birchall in September 1951 and installed on board.	Lost in the Ship in 1953.	1
Binnacle 1: The Ship's Wooden Binnacle.	It is of a type introduced in 1854 with two adjustable metal balls on the sides of the case to compensate for the strong magnetic influence of metal hulled ships. Its special features are a wooden body and a distinctively shaped low rounded cover. In 1953 it was recovered from the wreck and mounted across the road from the Quarterdeck hut. After 1964 it was mounted on the grass opposite the main entrance to the New Block. It had a Flinders Bar mounted on the back.	Upon paying off in 1974 it was given to the Sir John Cass College in Gravesend. When Cass closed it was bought by one of their Instructors and taken to New Zealand. It was eventually acquired by an OC in New Zealand and remains in his private ownership.	1

Binnacle 2: The Museum of the RN Binnacle Cover.	The museum can find no trace of the body but do have a very distinctively shaped binnacle cover. A small image of this binnacle appeared on the cover of The Cadet magazine from 1902 to 1917. It is clearly marked as belonging to Conway/Nile but it bears no resemblance to the one that was on the poop (Binnacle 1 above) or any of the others listed below!	Presented by the Club to the Museum of the RN, Portsmouth.	1
Binnacle 3: The Chart Room Binnacle	There was Browns Gyro compass and binnacle in the Chart Room. Its distinctive feature was a black narrow base. 'While we were salvaging things from the ship just after the grounding Spooky was lowering it over the side into one of the motor boats when it slipped out of its sling, missed the boat and fell into the drink. I don't know if it was ever recovered.'	Assumed lost with the Ship in 1953.	1
Binnacle 4: The Dock Binnacle	Not from the Ship but included here so that all binnacles can be viewed together. There was a binnacle on the dock, outside the Seamanship Room, from at least 1958. It looks very similar to the Ship's Wooden Binnacle because it has a wooden body and metal top but, its distinctive feature was a pyramid shaped cover. It also had very different openings to the Ship's Wooden Binnacle, a distinct wooden collar around its base and a Flinders Bar.	Possibly sold when Conway paid off, location not known, definitely not at the Dock.	1
Binnacle 5: The Pinnacle's Large Binnacle	Not from the Ship but included here so that all binnacles can be viewed together. This was mounted in the pinnacle and can be seen in most photos of the pinnacle although none are very clear. Its distinctive features were the large metal hood on the cover and the two light cans on	Owned by The Friends but not on display.	1
Binnacle 6: The Pinnacle's Small Binnacle	Not from the Ship but included here so that all binnacles can be viewed together. This was in the pinnacle but where? Its distinctive feature is its size - it's small.	Owned by The Friends but not on display.	1
Binnacle 7: The Friend's Binnacle Cover	The Friends have a binnacle cover that also came from the Ship.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Binnacle Compass	One large, one small.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Block	Very large threefold wooden cathead block.	Used to be displayed in Birkenhead Town Hall Museum but the Town Hall was sold after 2000 and no trace can be found of this item.	1
Block	Block recovered from the lower deck just before the fire in 56. Signed by his QB term but sadly now faded.	Privately owned by Robson (55-57).	1

Captain's Cabin's doors.	-	The doors to rooms 1 and 6 in Thurnham Hall Hotel , Lancashire bear plaques saying they are from Conway's Captain's cabin. They clearly have cambered bottoms to allow for the curve of ship's deck. For many years we had photos of the wrong doors that clearly were not from the ship. More recent photos of the correct doors now substantiate the claim.	1
Captain's Cabin's door locks for doors to the stern walk.	-	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Captain's Cabin's door locks (2) and plates (4) for doors to Captain's cabin.	-	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1

Electric Gong	Donated to the Ship in January 1919 by an Old Conway. It was a war prize captured from the German submarine U80. The gongs were placed in every compartment and could be sounded centrally to warn of an immediate crash dive. It was fitted in the after part of the Ship's Main Deck in working order.	Assumed lost with the Ship in 1953.	1
Ensign	Ensign worn by the ship for her final voyage on 14th April 1953.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Ensign	Ensign worn by the ship on passage from the River Mersey to Menai Strait on 21st May 1941.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Ensign	Ensign from Ship.	In private ownership, known to author.	1
Field Gun	A two pounder wheeled field gun, minus breech used to stand outside the gun room in the Ship - whether to protect the inhabitants or keep them in order is not clear. When the Ship was lost the gun was salvaged and transferred to the entrance of the Nelson Block. It was presented to the Ship by Capt. H M Perfect RN (1882-84). It was captured from the Chinese by the crew of Undaunted at the storming of Tien-Suin during the Boxer rebellion. An engraved plaque describing its capture has been polished to illegibility by generations of cadets so we may never know the full story.	Presented by the Club to the Maritime Museum, Greenwich. In permanent storage.	1
Figurehead.	Donated by the Conway Club in 1938 and masted in the ship at Liverpool Pierhead.	Presented by the Club to HMS Nelson, Portsmouth.	1
Gun Plaque (no gun!)	Originally mounted on a gun on the Poop Deck. Brass, engraved: THIS GUN PRESENTED TO THE CONWAY BY THE DIRECTORS OF MESSRS T&J BROCKLEBANK LTD DID SERVICE DURING THE WAR THE FOLLOWING STEAMSHIPS 1915 – 1919. A list of 22 ships follows.	Owned by The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Gyroscope	Boxed. Donated in September 1925 by Captain J V Foster on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Steamships. A war prize from German submarine U112.	Assumed lost with the Ship in 1953.	1
Hemp Stopper	In 1974 it was kept in the Headmaster's House.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1

Inclinometer.	Ornate shield shaped wooden plaque painted white mounted on a larger brown wooden plaque. Swinging metal arm mounted centrally over a graduated arc. Mounted in the ship by the wheel so the steersman could see the angle of lean of the ship. Note this is an extremely rare item there may be only three others surviving in the world (in Victory, Trincomalee and Gannet).	Donated to The Friends by the ship's engineer. On long term loan to the Conway Centre and displayed there.	1
Lifebelt Holder	Rescued from the wreck in May 1953 by Ian Minchin (52-54). Dates from circa 1843.	Donated by Ann Fraser in memory of Dennis Hewitt (52-54) to The Friends and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Mast - Main Top Mast	Recovered from the original commemorative Conway mast at Twelve Quays, Birkenhead.	Donated by The Friends to Birkenhead Priory where it is erected inside St Michael's Church tower.	1
Mast - 'Mizzen' Mast.	Actually the ship's main topgallant mast, not its mizzen, and the mizzen gaff. Erected at the New Block in 1965,	Small sections donated by The Friends to Wirral Council and incorporated into a commemorative Conway mast at Twelve Quays, Birkenhead.	1
Mast - 'Mizzen' Mast.	An 18' section recovered from the original commemorative Conway mast at Twelve Quays, Birkenhead.	Donated to Pwhelli Sailing Club, North Wales in recognition of their fundraising for the commemorative Conway mast at Twelve Quays, Birkenhead.	1
Memorial Tablet	This was installed on the mainmast in June 1910 and was the honour board for those who lost their lives at sea. It was paid for by donations from OCs. When installed it listed 40 names but it has been found to include those who died at sea but were buried ashore. The modern Lost At Sea Book of Remembrance in the chapel and on the website lists only those who were not buried ashore i.e. they were buried at sea or their bodies were never recovered. 293 names are listed.	It was not recovered from the ship in 1953 because it had been seriously damaged. Only a broken section from the top showing the top half of the engraved Conway castle was recovered and is held in the chapel.	1
Mess - Cadet Captain's Stool	Rates stool, wooden circular seat with three metal legs. Discovered on the bank of the Strait behind the Dock Mole in 1967.	In private OC ownership, known to author.	1
Mess - Conserve Spoon	Engraved: 'HMS Conway'.	Donated to The Friends in Memory of Robert S. Hutchinson (37-38) and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1

Model Of SS Hortenius	Donated by Lt Cdr F J Rodden RNR of the Houston Line. A Half model with a looking glass behind which gave the appearance of a whole model. "The model which is 7' 6" long and handsomely mounted ... is most complete and beautifully finished." It was placed on the Lower Deck.	Not known. Possibly lost with the ship in 1953.	1
Mooring Shackle	7.5" Cast Iron Mooring shackle rescued from the wreck. Mounted by Graham Holden (55-56).	Donated to The Friends by Tony Branthwaithe (52-54) and displayed in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead Priory.	1
Name Board - Starboard Gangway.	This was a brass nameplate circa 2' long and 10" tall with the letters HMS Conway embossed on it. Believed to have been mounted above the port into the Ship on the starboard gangway (although it is not visible in any photos, at least one OC remembers polishing it in situ).	Donated during a ceremony on board HQS Wellington in 1976 to Kelly College by the British Shipping Federation, Conway's then owners, at the suggestion of the Conway Club. It was received by Mr D Ball for display in Conway House.	1
Name Board - Stern.	It was 7'6" feet long and 18" deep. It had Conway spelt out in metal letters mounted individually on a wooden board. It was removed from the Ship and placed on the veranda of the Quarterdeck Hut at the Camp. It was later mounted over the stairs between 'Back Stage' and the dormitory wing in the New Block.	No record has been found of it being donated to anyone by the Club so it should have passed to the BSF in 1974. Neither they nor the Conway Centre have any knowledge of it.	1
			1
Navigation / Chart Room Equipment	In September 1952 DECCA Navigator Company donated a Position Finding Instrument, Sperry Gyroscope Company & New Zealand Shipping Company donated gyroscope and repeater for the Chart Room. The repeater was placed on the Poop, see page 15.	Presumed lost with the Ship in 1953.	1
Navigation Lights x5	Three large and two smaller lanterns. Listed in the 1974 Paying Off inventory as being held in the Seamanship Room at the Dock.	Assumed sold when Conway paid off, location not known.	1

At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. A group of 60 or so items, mainly competition cups, were gifted to the Club with instructions that the Club should decide whether to retain or dispose of each item. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. Badminton Cup	See Julian Holt Cup	na	1
Bannister Cup (aka Sailing Cup)	Donated by Mr A C Bannister the father of J A Bannister (07-08) in April 1910. It was for a one off knockout dinghy sailing competition in June and July open to any cadet who could muster a crew. The races proved so popular he kindly donated another cup in 1911. The competition was repeated in 1912 for the Mulock Cup and 1913 for the Reynolds Cup. In 1914 a new permanent competition was introduced for the Moody Cup.	Both cups became the property of the winner whose name is not known.	1
Barnes Cup (aka Gig Cup)	Donated in the summer of 1929 by A J Barnes (09-11) - a notable cartoonist and co-founder of the still extant Seven Seas Club. It was awarded to encourage 'the type of rowing' necessary to train cadets for the Conway - Worcester rowing race. It became the inter watch gig race (ship cadets only - see Goulding Cup). Also see Parker Cups.	It was loaned by the Club to the St Helena Shipping Co in 1991 for permanent display in the passenger area of RMS St Helena which also carried cadets in two cabins named Conway and Worcester. The cup was awarded annually to the cadet who produced the best kept log or project through their training period aboard. It was lost during a refit and despite very extensive searches it has not been found.	1
Bartlett Cup aka Breeches Buoy Cup	Donated on 8th December 1958 by Miss O Bartlett of Saskatchewan in memory of her father Capt. R Bartlett. He was not an OC; although there were cadets named Bartlett their years and names mean they were not her father. He was awarded it in 1898 by HM Government in recognition of his part in the brave rescue of 45 members of crew of the Hull steamer Londonian. It was the inter-divisional prize for Breeches Buoy lifesaving.	Donated during a ceremony on board HQS Wellington in 1976 to the Canadian Coast Guard College by the Conway Club. It was received by Mr J Galarneau.	1

Captain Webb Memorial Shield (aka Webb Shield)	The shield was the idea of Capt. L W Bayldon although his proposal was for a cup. It was donated by the National Webb Memorial Association who also funded the bust of him on Dover sea front and the national Webb Memorial Trophy. It was handed over by a Mrs Ward on sport's day 1910. It carried a large portrait of Capt. Webb and was inscribed with the words 'Presented by the Committee of the webb memorial fund, 1910, in memory of Captain Matthew Webb, who was a cadet on board 1860-62. To be held as a perpetual challenge shield between the port and starboard watches for team swimming'. It was eventually decided to award it for the senior swimming relay race and the first race was on 6 th July 1910. In the New Block it hung on the Mess Deck.	At some point, presumably in 1974, it was either gifted or loaned to the National Maritime Museum, Greenwich who have it in store.	1

Assayed London 1890, weight 55ozs. Height 47 cms. Two handles and cover, no stand.	Donated to the Conway Club by the British Shipping Federation, Conway's then owners on paying off. On permanent loan to The Friends of HMS Conway for display in the Conway Chapel at Birkenhead.	1
Conway Worcester Boat Race Challenge Shield	Donated in the summer of 1897 by 62 Old Conways and Old Worcesters 'in the East'. It was the idea of a Captain Hardcastle. It was to be jointly owned by both ships and awarded annually to the winners of the Conway Worcester Rowing Challenge Cup. Awarded annually until 1906 when Worcester withdrew. Resurrected in 1929 but suspended in 1939 by war. Worcester won it every year including the last and so kept the shield.	Worcester donated it to the Honourable Company of Master Mariners who have it in store.	1
Conway Worcester Rowing Challenge Trophy (aka Masefield Cup)	Donated by John Masefield in 1929 for the resurrected gig race. It was awarded annually from 1929 to 1939 when war intervened. It was raced for once more on 20 th June 1959 (Conway's centenary). Worcester won it every year including the last and so kept the trophy	Worcester donated it to the National Maritime Museum, London where it is in store	1

At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. A group of 60 or so items, mainly competition cups, were gifted to the Club with instructions that the Club should decide whether to retain or dispose of each item. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. At paying off in 1974 all Conway's artefacts (all then referred to as "Trophies") were disposed of by the British Shipping Federation's Management Committee. For major items they asked the Conway Club Committee to identify suitable recipients but the final donation decisions were made by Conway's Management Committee, not the Club or its President. The then President, Commodore David Smith OBE RN, personally found homes for the figurehead, wheel, bell and model. The vast majority of items were sold at a special auction at Plas Newydd but we have not been able to obtain a copy of the catalogue to create an authoritative list of items sold. If you have a copy we'd really like to see it - alfie@hmsconway.org
